6.14 Procedure for Meetings

The Chair will preside at all meetings of the Board, maintain order, decide whether motions are in order, and rule on all procedural matters. If the Chair is not present at the time for the meeting to begin, the Vice-Chair will call the meeting to order and will preside for that meeting or until the arrival of the Chair. If both the Chair and the Vice-Chair are not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time for the meeting to begin, the Secretary will call the meeting to order and will preside for the election of an Acting Chair. If both the Chair and the Vice-Chair are absent from a Board meeting or are unable to take the chair, the Board will appoint an Acting Chair from among the Members present. The Secretary will conduct the election. While presiding, the Acting Chair will have all the rights, duties and responsibilities of the Chair. The Chief Executive Officer shall designate a recording secretary for meetings.

6.15 Rules of Order

A copy of the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be available at all library meetings.

- All decisions will be made on the basis of motions.
- To make a motion, a member must obtain the floor first.
- Every motion must be seconded by another member.
- A motion will not be debated until it has been moved and seconded and put on the floor by the Chair.

- There will be only one substantive motion before the meeting at any one time. An amendment may be made to a motion, but may not negate the main motion or materially alter the intent.
- After members debate the motion the Chair puts the question (puts it to a vote) and announces the result of the vote.
- A motion that has been moved and seconded can be withdrawn or modified (modifications that would not occasion debate if proposed as amendments) with the agreement of the mover.

6.16 Conduct of the Chair

The Chair will:

- call the meeting to order;
- determine the presence of a quorum;
- announce in proper sequence the business that comes before the Board;
- maintain a list of Members who have signalled the Chair that they wish to speak or ask questions;
- recognize Members in the order in which they signalled that they wished to speak or ask questions;
- state and put to a vote all questions that legitimately come before the Board as motions, announcing the outcome;
- protect the assembly from obviously frivolous or dilatory motions by refusing to recognize them;
- expedite business;
- decide all questions of order;
- respond to inquiries of members relating to parliamentary procedure bearing on the business of the Board;
- declare the meeting adjourned when the Board so votes.

Members who have already spoken may speak again only after all other Members have been given the opportunity to speak. A Member may not speak more than twice on an issue without a board resolution. The Chair will not put any matter to the vote, nor will any Member move a procedural motion to have the vote taken, until every Member who wishes to speak has spoken at least once. If the Chair rules that a question is properly one of privilege and admissible, it must be dealt with immediately. The Chair's rulings on order or procedure are not debatable, but may be appealed by any Member by motion, duly seconded. If the motion is carried, the Chair's decision is overturned.

If the Chair rules that a motion is contrary to the rules of the Board, the Chair will tell the Members immediately before putting the question, and will cite the rule or authority applicable to the case without argument or comment. The Chair may place time limits on speeches. The time limit must be announced before the debate begins and must be the same for all Members.

6.17 Conduct of Members (P.L.A. - Section 16.1(3))

A member will be courteous and will not engage in any action, which disturbs the meeting.

A Member will not:

- use unparliamentary or offensive language, including any expressions or statements in debate or in questions that attribute false or undeclared motives to another Member, charge another Member with being dishonest, be abusive or insulting, or cause disorder;
- make any noise or disturbance that prevents Members from being able to participate in the meeting;
- interrupt a Member who is speaking, except to raise a Matter of Privilege or a Point of Order;
- disobey the rules of the Board, or disobey a decision of the Chair of the Board on questions of order or practice or on the interpretation of the rules of the Board.

A Member who wishes to speak will signal the Chair by a raised hand, and will wait for recognition by the Chair. All remarks and questions, including questions intended for another Member or staff, will be addressed to the Chair.

The Chair may deny a Member the right to speak on a particular topic if the Member is disruptive or persistently interrupts others.

The Chair may exclude a Member from the meeting who has been given a warning but continues to disregard the rulings from the Chair, "The board chair may exclude any person from a meeting for improper conduct at a meeting."

6.18 Conduct of the Public (P.L.A. - Section 16.1 (3))

Members of the public will be courteous and will not engage in any action, which disturbs the meeting. Members of the public will not:

- make any noise or disturbance that prevents members from being able to participate in the meeting;
- address the Board without a prior appointment, or without the permission of the Board at the meeting;
- use unparliamentary or offensive language. "The board chair may exclude any person from a meeting for improper conduct."

8.3 Amendments

Board meetings are normally held the third Monday of the month (except July and August) at 7:00 p.m. Although most meetings are held at the Lakeshore Branch of Innisfil Public Library, 967 Innisfil Beach Road, Innisfil, Ontario, L9S 1V3, there is a concerted effort to host at least one board meeting a year at each branch location.

Library Board members may ask for clarification after the presentation.

The presenter should understand that the Board will consider the presentation based on its own policies already created. The Board may not be able to make an immediate decision regarding the issue because it might need an opportunity to research the topic or because current Board policies do not address the issue being presented.

9.4 Board Follow-Up

The presenter will be sent a follow-up report summarizing the Board's decision regarding the issue.
